

Caring about “Capacity” and Human Rights at the End of Life with specific consideration to Dementia and Learning Disabilities

Tuesday 27th March 2018 from 13.00 to 16.30

Holiday Inn, High Wycombe HP11 1TL

13.00 Lunch (provided) and Registration
13.30	Introduction and Welcome	Dr Jane Bywater Palliative Medicine Consultant and Specialist EoL Lead TV SCN
13.40- 14.20	Ethical dilemmas at the end of life – what does case law provide us with?	Dr Michael Dunn Lecturer in Health and Social Care Ethics The Ethox Centre, University of Oxford
14.20- 14.45	What Matters to Me: a Human Rights Approach to End of Life Care	Laura Myers Education Lead Nettlebed Hospice
14.45- 15.10	Legal capacity and supported decision making in end of life care with people with learning disability/Autism	David Williams Palliative Social Worker Nettlebed Hospice
15.10- 15.15	Group work preparation	Dr Jane Bywater Palliative Medicine Consultant and Specialist EoL Lead TV SCN
15.15- 15.35	Tea & Coffee Break
15.35 - 16.15	Small group work: Case Study discussion focusing on Ethical, Mental Capacity within Dementia & Learning Disabilities and Human Rights issues	Speakers to support facilitation: Dr Michael Dunn Laura Myers David Williams Facilitators to include: Chris Allen Dr Barbara Barrie Dr Jane Bywater Gina King Rosemary Martin Vicki Mathews Rhonda Riachi Sylvia Thorn
16.15- 16.25	Closing remarks – how can ReSPECT help improve our decision-making?	Dr Barbara Barrie GP and Generalist Lead, TVSCN
16.30	Close	